According to Dr. Karam, "When it comes to cosmetic facial surgery, the difference in the final results often comes down to millimeters. Maintaining a sharp focus and dedication to excellence allows me to deliver the best outcome possible for my patients."

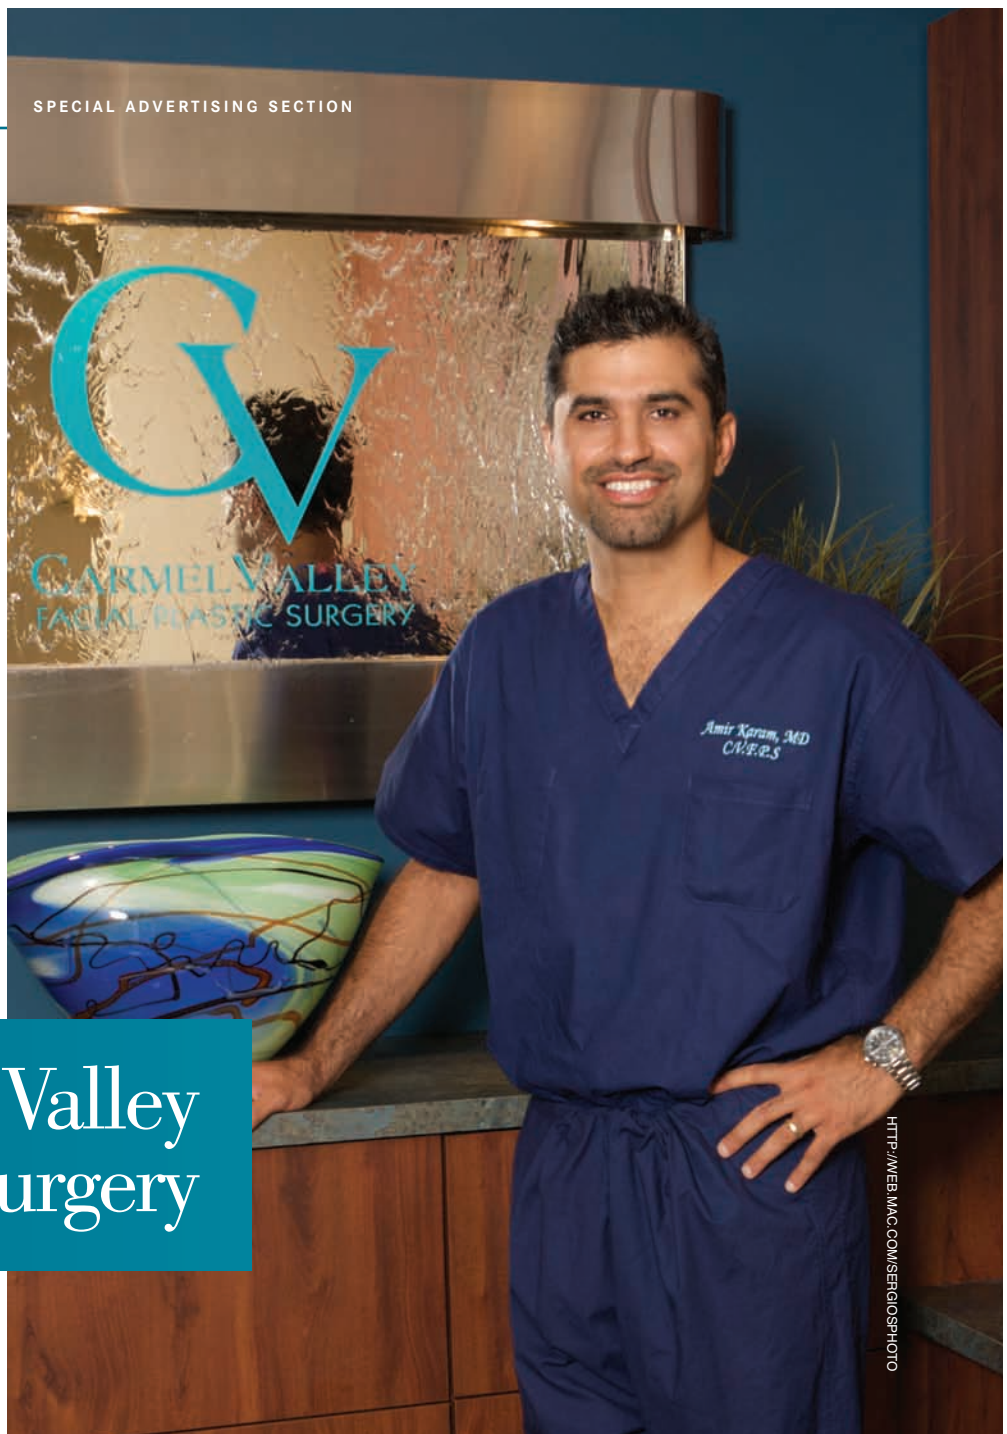

Dr. Karam offers innovative surgical and nonsurgical techniques that rejuvenate the eyes, face and neck. "My focus is on restoring the person's look, not necessarily changing it," he explains. "I combine procedures that work synergistically, making sure my patients look rejuvenated in a natural, safe way."
